

Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy

Purpose

South East Leisure (SEL) is dedicated to protecting children and young individuals from harm by implementing a comprehensive framework of strategies, practices, policies, and procedures to ensure their safety and wellbeing.

This policy aims to:

- embed an organisational culture of child safety, for all children with particular emphasis on the cultural safety of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, children with disabilities, and children who identify as LGBTQIA+;
- assist SEL to prevent and respond to any actual, suspected or alleged abuse or safety concerns of children;
- inform SEL employees, volunteers, and contractors of their legal and duty of care obligations in reporting alleged abuse and neglect.

This policy is intended to operate in conjunction with the Mandatory Reporting and Reportable Conduct requirements which apply to some groups of employees at SEL.

Scope

This policy applies to all SEL Directors and employees (permanent, fixed term or casual), volunteers, members, patrons and contractors.

Victoria's commitment to child safety is demonstrated through the framework of the Child Safe Standards (the Standards) made under the Child Wellbeing and Safety Act 2005.

South East Leisure's Commitment to Child Safety and Wellbeing

SEL is committed to providing an environment where children and young people accessing sports and recreation are safe and feel safe, empowered and secure.

At SEL, our core values of Care, Open, Fun and Sustainable are the cornerstones of our practices, fostering safe, enjoyable, and inclusive environments for all children regardless of their cultural background, abilities, or beliefs.

We commit to:

- maintaining a zero-tolerance approach towards child abuse (including grooming for abuse) and reportable conduct, recognising the paramount importance of our responsibilities for child safety and wellbeing.
- providing an environment that respects and supports everyone, with particular emphasis on the cultural safety of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and young people, children and young people from a culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, children with disabilities and children who identify as LGBTQIA+.
- empowering children and vulnerable individuals by informing them of their rights and responsibilities and supporting them to speak up about any matters of importance to them, including if something goes wrong. We work to include the participation of children in decision making regarding any services or other matters affecting them.
- preventing children and vulnerable people's abuse and identifying risks early, and where possible, to remove and reduce these risks.
- ensuring all allegations and safety concerns are treated seriously and consistently in line with SEL's policies and procedures, and all relevant legislation.
- upholding and following our legal and moral obligations to contact authorities when it is concerned about a child or young person's safety.
- maintaining robust human resources and recruitment practices for all SEL Team Members and volunteers, ensuring they are properly screened.
- regularly training, educating and screening our directors, employees, volunteers and contractors (including referees) to provide a child safe environment.
- Regularly reviewing and improving upon our Child Safety and Wellbeing program.

SEL has specific policies, procedures and training in place which supports its leadership team, employees, contractors and volunteers to achieve these commitments.

South East Leisure

Child Safety and Wellbeing Code of Conduct

SEL requires its employees to conduct themselves professionally and in a manner that reflects our commitment to child safety and wellbeing.

Clear expectations for appropriate behaviour with children are established in SEL's Code of Conduct. All SEL's employees, volunteers and contractors must agree to abide by SEL's Code of Conduct.

SEL will take appropriate disciplinary action against any employee, volunteer or contractor found to have contravened this Code or other related policies and procedures.

Training and Supervision

Training and education are important to ensure everyone at SEL understands that the safety of children and young people are everyone's responsibility.

SEL's culture aims for all employees, volunteers, and contractors (in addition to patrons, members, parents, guardians, carers and children/ young people) to feel confident and comfortable in discussing any allegations of abuse or safety concerns.

SEL educates its employees and volunteers to identify, assess and minimise risks of abuse of children and young people and, where employees work with children or young people, to detect potential signs of abuse.

SEL also supports employees and volunteers, including through ongoing supervision, to:

- develop their skills to identify and protect children and young people from abuse;
- promote the cultural safety of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and young people, the cultural safety of children and young people from a culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, children with disabilities and children who identify as LBGTQIA+;
- Understand their obligations to report any suspected, alleged or actual disclosures of child abuse.

New employees and volunteers will be supported to ensure they understand SEL's commitment to the safety of children and young people, and that everyone has a role to play in protecting children and vulnerable people from abuse. Our comprehensive induction module focusing on Child Safety must be completed as part of new team member onboarding. Appropriate work practices will be used to check that the behaviour of employees and volunteers towards children and young people is safe and appropriate.

Recruitment

SEL takes all reasonable steps to employ skilled people to work with children and young people. It develops selection criteria based on position descriptions and advertisements which clearly demonstrate SEL's commitment to the safety of children and young people and an awareness of its social and legislative responsibilities.

SEL actively encourages applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, people from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, people with a disability and people from the LBGTQIA+ community. All appointments are based on merit.

All people engaged by SEL to perform work at SEL facilities, including volunteers, are required to hold and to provide evidence of a valid Working with Children Check. SEL carries out reference checks and police record checks to ensure that it is recruiting the right people.

Requirements of contractors and service providers

SEL requires any:

- contractors accessing SEL facilities and
- service providers using SEL facilities to provide activities for children and young people to acknowledge and accept the SEL Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy and procedures. Further, SEL ensures all contractors and service providers performing work at SEL facilities hold and provide evidence of a valid Working with Children Check.

Incidents, disclosures and suspicions of Child Abuse

SEL is committed to hearing and acknowledging the voices of children and young people and their families. SEL has developed procedures and processes aimed at managing feedback and complaints that involve children and young people related to their safety.

SEL's 'Critical Actions when responding to incidents, disclosures and suspicions of Child Abuse' procedure provides the reporting procedure and methods to deal with any allegation thoroughly and in a timely manner. Any incidents, disclosures or suspicions of abuse should be reported through appropriate channels, including internally within SEL and to the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) Child Protection and Victoria Police, depending on the severity and urgency of the matter. SEL employees must report all suspected child abuse incidents and allegations.

If you believe a child is at immediate risk of abuse or harm, phone 000.

Any person employed by SEL who has engaged in inappropriate behaviour or unlawful conduct may be counselled or warned in accordance with SEL policies. Serious or persistent breaches can lead to formal disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

South East Leisure

All reports and allegations will be managed in line with the requirements of the:

- Victorian Child Safety Standards.
- Reportable Conduct Scheme
- Legislative requirements and mandatory reporting requirements
- SEL Code of Conduct
- SEL Performance Counselling and Discipline Policy
- SEL's Critical Actions when responding to incidents, disclosures and suspicions of Child Abuse procedure.

Health, Safety and Quality Coordinator	Sandra McAlpine	smcalpine@southeastleisure.com.au

Legislative responsibilities

SEL takes its legal responsibilities seriously, including the criminal offences of failure to disclose (which applies to all adults in Victoria) and failure to protect (which applies to relevant employees of SEL). In addition, any Sel employees or volunteers who are mandatory reporters must comply with their duties.

Fair procedures

As well as being concerned about the safety and wellbeing of children and young people, SEL also aims to be fair and just to its employees and volunteers. The decisions SEL makes when recruiting, assessing, or investigating alleged incidents and undertaking disciplinary action will always be thorough, transparent, and evidence based. The principles of procedural fairness and natural justice will be applied.

SEL will record all allegations of abuse and safety concerns. All records will be securely stored in confidential files, subject to the privacy and confidentiality parameters set out below.

If an allegation of abuse or a safety concern is raised, SEL will provide updates as appropriate to relevant children, young people and/or families (as well as to the person who is alleged to have committed the abuse) on progress and actions taken by SEL.

Privacy and Confidentiality

SEL will respect the privacy of all individuals involved, whether they are members of our workforce, volunteers, parents/guardians/carers, children, or young people, unless there is a risk to someone's safety. Information should be treated as confidential and should only be used and disclosed on a need-to-know basis, with the consent of the individual or their authorised representative, or otherwise in accordance with law.

Risk Management

SEL has adopted a risk management approach to the development of its Child Safety Wellbeing Program. In addition to general occupational health and safety risks, SEL proactively manages risks of abuse to children and young people. SEL has risk management strategies in place to identify, assess, and take steps to minimise abuse risks, which include risks posed by physical environments (for example, any rooms with doors that can lock), and online environments (for example, no employee and volunteer is to have contact with a child on social media unless necessary or appropriate in the course of their role with SEL).
